FINAL REPORT

About the Programme

The Master of Arts in Development Studies and Diplomacy is an interdisciplinary and holistic programme that will broaden students' knowledge in the field of development studies, sustainability and diplomacy and equip them with the required soft skills for a successful international career in any of these areas of expertise. It is offered in an online format, and includes optional visits to Geneva, Switzerland, and/or The Hague, Netherlands.

During this programme, students will analyze the different dimensions of development, including environmental, social, economic and human dimensions, as well as the theory and practice of diplomacy in the 21st century. Students will also attend skills development and coaching sessions that are designed to support their professional careers and employability. Career paths in this field span a wide and diverse range of opportunities. Prospective employers include governments, international organizations, development agencies, academia and the private sector.

Students can also pursue a shorter programme such as the Certificate in Development Studies and Diplomacy (online), or sign up for individual online courses within the framework of the Master of Arts in Development Studies and Diplomacy and the Certificate in Development Studies and Diplomacy.

Who is it for?

The programme is designed for graduate students, diplomats, government officers, NGO representatives, international civil servants or private sector specialists who seek to strengthen their knowledge in development studies, sustainability, international affairs management and diplomacy.
